

Community and Corporate Giving Program

PURPOSE

One of the deepest values of CFG is a commitment to invest in the communities we serve, stemming from the generous and philanthropic nature of CFG's owner, Jack Dwyer.

CFG engages in partnerships to support and transform our communities for the better – and hopes to inspire others to do the same because supporting the community is not something one person or organization can take on by themselves; it needs to be done collectively.

By integrating philanthropy and volunteerism into CFG's core values, CFG continuously strives to make a lasting impact on the lives of those it serves through its Community and Corporate Giving Program.

ORGANIZATIONS CONSIDERED

An organization must be recognized as a non-profit organization, exempt from Federal Tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Code. This will be documented with a copy of the organization's IRS determination letter.

INELIGIBLE

CFG does not sponsor individuals, religious & political gatherings or any other activities that are not creating social change.
